

1Dr. Mickey L. Walters Personal Profile

On June 12, 1973, Jesus Christ took residence in my heart and has lived there ever since. Immediately, God called me into His service.

Dr. Walters and her husband, Dr. George Walters, Jr., founded and pastor Faith Outreach Center Church in Tampa, FL, since 1983. Faith Outreach Center is also home to Faith Outreach Academy and Faith Theological Seminary and Christian College. Throughout Dr. Walter's Christian life, she has been a pastor's wife, Sunday School teacher and director, Academy Administrator, college teacher, counselor, and led a women's prison ministry. She has been on the foreign mission field throughout the Caribbean and in Korea preaching and teaching the Gospel. Dr. Walters is a conference speaker, crossing denominational lines by encouraging women to live for Christ. Her motivating force is to be led by the Holy Spirit to minister the Word of God and mentor and train men and women in their calling.

Dr. Walters attended Moody Bible College and graduated with a B.S. in Theology from International Bible Institute and Seminary in 1988. She later received an Honorary Doctorate of Divinity from International (IBI).

Dr. Walters is a seasoned counselor, earning a M.A. in Christian Counseling from Whitfield Theological Seminary in 1990, and a M.A. in Pastoral Psychology and Counseling from Faith Theological Seminary also in 1990.

Dr. Walters is a member of the National Christian Counselors Association (NCCA) since 1991 as a Licensed Pastoral Counselor; and National Board of Christian Clinical Therapists since 1995.

She is an ordained minister of the Gospel with Faith Outreach Center since 1991; and the National Christian Conservative Church since 2001.

Dr. Walters received a Certificate of Appointment from Hillsborough County Board of Commissioners from 1998-2000 on the Tampa/Hillsborough Cable Advisory Committee. Her voice was heard on this commission to clean up the public access programming in the county. She is dedicated to family values and her stand has been felt throughout Tampa and Hillsborough County. She is an advocate for Christian education, Pro-Life, and family values in the home.

Dr. Walters has five grown children, 10 grandchildren and two great-grand children.
